FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE:

VALKER RECEIVES SCHOLARSHIP FROM EIU

CHARLESTON, IL--Gail Valker, daughter of Henry and Agnes Valker of Wood Dale, is the recipient of the Martin Luther King Jr. Scholarship from Eastern Illinois University.

Established by the Eastern Illinois Chapter of the American Association of University Professors in memory of Dr. King, the award is given annually to one or more Eastern students who are "living examples of the ideals and values expressed by Dr. King."

Present for the award presentation were Eastern President David Jorns, Provost and Vice President for Academic Affairs Barbara Hill, and AAUP representatives David Maurer, chairman of the history department, and Kandy Baumgardner, zoology professor.

Valker is a 1989 graduate of Fenton High School in Bensenville and is currently a senior at Eastern majoring in English.

She is a member of Eastern's University Board, Student Government and Alpha Sigma Alpha sorority. She is also former president of Order of Omega.

Eastern, located in Charleston, places its highest priority on teaching in its classrooms and laboratories, supplemented by strong academic support services.
